Faculty Making A Difference Award

Recognizing and Appreciating Excellence

Counseling & Career Services of Midlands Technical College invites students receiving accommodations through our office to choose instructors who exhibit the qualities necessary to be presented the Faculty Making A Difference Award. The award serves to recognize instructors who freely and unselfishly support our efforts to maximize student success. Recipients of the award will be announced in the quarterly editions of "The Pony Express." If you wish to nominate an MTC instructor, please fill out the form below and submit it to the Counseling & Career Services office. For further information on the Faculty Making A Difference Award, please contact Counseling & Career Services: 822-3505 (Airport) or 738-7636 (Beltline)
